1 Introduction

Some of your text. Maybe with an acronym, such as Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena (FSU Jena).

2 First Section

2.1 First Subsection

2.2 Second Subsection

Some more of your text. Maybe you want to cite Nelson (1959) or enforce a statement because many have said that before (e.g. Nelson and Winter 1982; Dosi 1982; Lundvall 1992; Acemoglu 2002). You might want to refer to subsection 2.1, where you defined some important concepts.

3 Second Section

3.1 Another Subsection

Here is a reference to Table 1. In Figure 1, you see ... .

<tr>
<td>Luxembourg</td>
<td>98,987</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Singapore</td>
<td>85,253</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3.2 Yet another Subsection

If you want to typeset formulas, there is the inline version $y = x_1^{0.5} x_2^{0.5}$, centered like this

$$y = x_1^{0.5} x_2^{0.5}$$

or numbered:

$$y = x_1^{0.5} x_2^{0.5} \quad (1)$$
Consideration of use?

so that you can refer to equation 1 in the text.
